

Meet the Muslims feeding the homeless during Ramadan while fasting themselves.

1) How does the As-Suffa charity help the homeless in Birmingham?

They provide free food and bedding

2) How have the volunteers shown particular commitment during Ramadan?

They have been fasting whilst giving out food

3) Why does Mr Khan say it is easier to volunteer during Ramadan?

Use evidence from the article in your answer.

He says it is easier because whilst your energy levels are on a low spiritual you are on a high!

4) How many hot meals have As-Suffa provided since 2012?

They have provided 250,000 hot meals since 2012.

5) What is the As-Suffa motto? Why do they feel this is a good motto?

'The best of people are those who benefit mankind', this is a good motto because Allah called them to help others

Birmingham Muslims giving shelter to the homeless throughout the winter.

1) What problem do As-Suffa believe is 'blighting our streets'?

The problem of homelessness is 'blighting our streets'.

2) How are As-Suffa helping?

They are helping by providing a shelter throughout the cold months.

3) How often do the team distribute food to the homeless?

They distribute food to the homeless 6 nights a week or 7 during Ramadan

4) Finish the sentence: 'By housing the homeless...'

we will create a safe space for them and give them a little relief from their harsh lives

5) What did Mr Hussain call a 'huge achievement' last year?

They managed to get 10 people into housing.

6) Fill in the missing words:

Altaf Kazi, Muslim Aid's Head of UK Programmes, said:

"God reminds us repeatedly to look after the poor and needy. As Muslims, we must fulfil our obligations"